

SFC Style – Mobile Pampering on Demand

SFC Style are mobile pampering specialists in London specialising in delivering a wealth of services direct to ones door. Qualified and insured mobile beauticians and masseuses perform treatments in London and their nationwide services are well underway. Other services include visits by mobile makeup artists, hair stylists and image consultants.

Their ethos is to make luxury treatments readily available with the upmost convenience and minimum effort for their clients. Essentially, their service takes out the legwork of finding the time to visit a salon or searching online for a reputable therapist. Their aim is to cater for a wide demographic of clientele, from working mums, career women to business men and busy dads.

Unlike other mobile beauty companies, SFC insists on working with a very select number of specialists to insure their reputation of a 100% professional service is upheld, and equally to insure their specialists work as a close- knit community.

All services can be provided in homes, hotels and offices. Each therapist uses a salon quality products and can turn any room into a haven of wellbeing and pure indulgence. From massages to wedding day hair and make-up to corporate pampering. SFC's services are priced by a simple set booking fee. Guests can book easily online or simply call the bookings team to arrange an appointment.

Since launching in 2007, SFC Style has been recommended by Dailycandy.com and Wedding Ideas magazine among other publications. The team have pampered high profile clients at luxury hotels including The Gore and The Hempel and also worked at establishments including The London College of Fashion. Most importantly, their team continually achieve positive feedback and successfully retain the loyalty of their client.

With dedicated, friendly specialists available on call, seven days a week, SFC Style is revolutionising the way people across the UK pamper themselves!
